

Save the Date

Virtual WE Schools Annual Educator Summit, August 22, 2019

We're excited to share with you the opportunity to join us virtually for a day of learning, inspiration and connection. You'll engage with thought-leaders and experts in the fields of well-being, service-learning, using technology in the classroom and more, and learn how to best interact with students in making meaningful change in the classroom and community. To top it off, be the first to see what's new and available for WE Schools to integrate into your school plan and take your practice to the next level!

Date: Thursday, August 22, 2019 Time: 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. EST

Featuring guest speakers:

Sonja Delafosse is a former music and math teacher, professional development specialist, assistant principal, and technology coordinator. She is currently leading Microsoft's global Educator Engagement Programs including professional development for educators and the Microsoft Innovative Educator community strategy and experiences. Find out more about Sonja and the Microsoft Educator Community here.

Dr. Jacqueline L. Sanderlin ("Dr. J") is an accomplished school principal, professor and empowerment speaker, whose "why not?" attitude has led to dramatic improvements in some of Southern California's toughest schools. Her innovative style has taken this simple question and turned it into a movement that educational leaders around the country are clamoring to incorporate into their schools, classrooms and communities. Find out more about Dr. J here.

Dr. Kimberley Schonert-Reichl is a renowned expert in the area of social and emotional learning (SEL) research with children and adolescents, particularly in relation to the identification of the processes and mechanisms that foster positive human qualities such as empathy, compassion, altruism and resiliency. Find out more about Dr. Schonert-Reichl and WE Well-being here.

A leading expert on social justice and service-learning education, Dr. Jonathan White has served on the Board of Directors for WE Charity for the past 17 years. He recently lent his skills as Senior Consultant to the AP® with WE Service program and regularly consults with the WE Schools team on curriculum and strategy, and the WE Trips Team on curriculum and facilitation. He is an activist, academic and mentor. Find out more about Jonathan here.
